

Martin and Mortimer
Independent Chartered Surveyors

Established in 1965, Martin and Mortimer is a private practice firm of independent, senior, chartered surveyors. We have, in total, 7 offices and 4 equity partners; Stephen Scott Fawcett, MA (Cantab) FRICS, Michael Pemberton, BSc (Hons) MRICS, Andrew Warren, BSc (Hons) MRICS and Mark Duckworth MRAC CSRT MFPWS ABEng. Between them they have over 60 years of experience carrying out survey and related work throughout East Anglia.

At Martin and Mortimer, we specialise in providing independent advice on residential property to include:-

- Building Surveys
- Homebuyers Reports

- Party Wall advice
- Valuations for tax and Court
- Expert witness reports
- Specific defect reports
- Damp and Timber reports

We are regulated by the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors and ISO 9002 Quality Assured.

Our Service

We aim to provide detailed yet pragmatic advice. You can speak to your surveyor before and after the inspection and even meet him on site at the time of the survey.

Michael Pemberton is a member of The Expert Surveyors Group, a professional collaboration of experienced surveyors undertaking Expert Witness reports prior to Court proceedings.
